

Ohio NATS Governor:

Jacqueline Barlow-Ware holds a bachelor's degree in voice performance with Highest Distinction from Lawrence University Conservatory of Music, a master's degree in vocal performance and a master's degree in vocal pedagogy from The Ohio State University. Additional music studies were completed at the University of Wisconsin in Madison and in Heidelberg, Germany. She has sung roles with a number of opera companies and has been active in recitals and oratorio throughout the United States, as well as Germany and Austria. For twenty five years she was mezzo-soprano soloist at First Community Church in Columbus appearing on their weekly TV and radio broadcasts and recording sacred music for Beckenhorst Press.

As a teacher, Prof. Barlow-Ware has taught voice for The Ohio State University, the University of Virginia and Lawrence University Conservatory of Music, besides Capital. Recently former students have been featured in leading roles on Broadway in Les Miserables, Mamma Mia, Fiddler on the Roof and Wicked, and on National Broadway and International Broadway tours of Legally Blond, Spring Awakening, Mamma Mia, Grease, Cats, South Pacific, Sound of Music, King and I, and State Fair as well as singing with opera companies. Students have been invited to perform on the popular National Public Radio broadcast of From The Top featuring the best of young talent from across the US. In addition, her students have received scholarships to the most renowned music conservatories and schools in the US in both classical voice and musical theatre. Since 1991, twenty of her students have been national winners in some of the most prestigious musical competitions in the United States. Her students are frequent winners in NATS as well as in other numerous regional, state and local competitions.

She currently holds the position of Ohio Governor for the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) and has served NATS for the last 8 years in various offices as President, Vice President and on the Board of Directors. She is frequently sought as an adjudicator and workshop leader for many national, regional and state competitions. Her bio has been featured in multiple editions of Who's Who Among America's Teachers, and the Marquis' editions of Who's Who in the World, Who's Who in America, and Who's Who in American Education. She is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda.